TWENTY-SECOND YEAR.

GUNNING FOR MEN.

French-Eversole Feud Breaks Out Again in Kentucky.

One of the Eversole Faction Shot from Ambush.

CRACK OF A RIFLE.

One French is Shot and Two Are Captured.

Men of Both Sides Hunting for One another With Guns.

Big Stone Gap, Va., Oct. 17.—The French-Eversole feud has started afresh in Perry county, Kentucky. Bob May, an ex-member of the Kentucky legislature, and one of the principals on the Eversole side, is here from Hazard, the seat of the county and of the war. Judge Combs, the father-in-law of the dead Eversole leader, is dead.

The leader of the French faction, whose name was Frazer, Fulton French, and two others of his faction have been arrested for his murder, and more trouble will follow. Judge Combs was 70 years old and lived in Hazard. Early on Sunday morning two weeks ago, he stepped across the street where young Cuth Eversole and two others were talking. A rifle cracked from the cornfield just over the fence and the bullet struck the old man in his breast and he fell.

Cuth Eversole wheeled and saw a man with a blackened face spring and dash through the cornfield. He says the man was Joe Adkins. At the same time some other Frenches began firing and shouting from another direction to divert attention from Adkins. Young Cuth with several others advanced to the spot and hid themselves in a ravine.

Other men with blackened faces soon appeared, who, the Eversoles said, were Adkins, Frazer and Jesse Field. As they climbed over a bank, Will Martin, a boy in the Eversole crowd, fired and killed the Frenchman who was nearest. He was captured but was captured later with Fulton French in Breathitt county. Adkins is said to have escaped, but French and Field are held.

They are trying to get the county judge to come to Breathitt line and try them, as they are afraid to go to Hazard. Only last Saturday evening they received an anonymous letter saying they would be shot the moment they put foot across the county line.

Judge Combs died in a few hours. He had never taken any part in the feud, though he was a man of wealth and in sympathy with the French and May. Eversoles during the war. Soon the Gambrells killed the Eversole leader, and desultory fighting went on after the war until 1886. Then Fulton French came from Virginia to Hazard and taught school and ran a law office. He was the leader of the Eversole faction. The Eversoles were the richest and strongest family in the county and they always had a store in Hazard which was the Republican headquarters.

French rented this store from Joe Eversole for a year and opened with his clerk, Bob May. May and Eversole, though political enemies, joined the forces, and in time there were 100 men on each side.

Sheriffs, lawyers and judges have been with the Eversoles. French is said to have hired many of his fighters. Many have left Hazard, for fear of assassination, he says.

Men on both sides are out gunning for their enemies.

YALE'S IMMORALITY.

A Young Girl Visits the Students at Their Dormitories.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 17.—Barbara Walters, a German girl, 16 years old, was arrested on the Yale campus one morning this week and turned over to the board of charities. Policemen Denny and Wiser allege that they saw the girl leave the entrance of one of the college dormitories. She confessed to Mr. Preston, agent of the associated charities, that she had been guilty of improper conduct with several of the students and had been a frequenter of their rooms for a year.

The girl was given a hearing before Police Judge Caba, preliminary to being sent to the industrial home, and she showed a remarkable knowledge of the world and of things immoral for a girl of 16 years. So surprised were the officials at the knowledge displayed by the girl that she was asked to go to the campus and point out the rooms she had visited, to prove that her story was true. She did this, but, of course, the occupants of the rooms denied all knowledge of the girl. However, one student was suspended by Dean Wright. Two other students are said to have left the university, fearing an exposure.

No Meeting at Shorey.

The Republican county central committee is arranging its meeting for this week proposed to have a meeting at Shorey tonight which has, however, been declared off because the Populists had previously engaged the hall for tonight.

This gives 116,000,000 bushels as the approximate requirement from abroad.

MAYOR GILROY BACKS OUT.

He Will Not Preside at the Big Irish Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The members of the Irish National federation who are preparing the reception to be tendered in the next Congress tonight to Edward Blake, M. P., for South Longford, Ireland, have received a disagreeable surprise by the refusal of Mayor Gilroy to preside as he had agreed to do so a week ago.

When the mayor was approached by Patrick Gleason and the other members of the arrangement committee, and asked to help along, he consented. A day or two ago the Irish independent party, which represents the element of Irishmen in this country who favor aggressive or Parnell methods in Irish affairs, instead of the doctrine of agitation, prepared a circular, which they issued broadcast through the city and vicinity.

It made a direct onslaught on Mr. Blake, and called upon all loyal Irishmen to repudiate him and the party he represents.

AGAINST GEN. MCCOOK.

Lieutenant Colonel Noyes Preferred Charges Against the General.

DENVER, Oct. 17.—The News today says that Lieutenant Colonel Henry E. Noyes, of the Second cavalry, recently transferred from a post in Arizona to Logan, has preferred charges against General McCook and that the general's recent trip to Washington was made partly owing to these charges.

According to the report published in the News, Lieutenant Colonel Noyes, who is on leave of absence, has filed the bill of will of citizens, and complaint was filed with General McCook. Lieutenant Colonel Noyes reported that the duty was such as was demanded by the circumstances. Gen. McCook removed him from the post he occupied and he immediately laid the matter before the department at Washington. The correspondence followed, and Lieutenant Col. Noyes wound up by preferring charges against the general.

Intimations from Washington are to the effect that Secretary Lamont has sustained Gen. McCook and that Lieutenant Col. Noyes will remain at Fort Logan.

DELINQUENT TAXES.

County Clerk's Report to Auditor of State Shows only $1,678 Delinquent.

The county clerk made a report to the auditor of state today of the amount of delinquent taxes to be credited to Shawnee county as required by law. The report shows a very small delinquency compared with a year ago.

The delinquent taxes are as follows: Personal property, $182.01; Real estate, 159.03; Railroad, 687.16.

Total, $1,678.80.

OUTLOOK IN CALIFORNIA.

Editor De Young Gives Reasons for Forecasting Republican Victory.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—M. H. De Young, of San Francisco, vice chairman of the Republican national committee, is at the Waldorf. When questioned as to the political outlook in California he said:

"We shall elect a majority of the congressional delegation of seven, and the next legislature is sure to be Republican. The Republicans will carry the next national house of representatives."

"The removal of the duty on wool has hit California hard. We have produced on an average from 35,000,000 to 40,000,000 pounds of wool annually for many years past. We have a standard Australian and Argentine competition. Fleeces are being rapidly reduced, the growers sending their sheep to the shambles rather than saving them for shearing purposes."

"We shall seriously feel the withdrawal of bounty from beet sugar, under the stimulus of which the combined output reached nearly 45,000,000 pounds during the present year. The quantity could be increased almost indefinitely with the bounty system, but without it the beet sugar production will go to the wall."

DEMOCRAT BECOMES POP.

A Member of the Colorado State Central Committee Goes Over.

FORT COLLINS, Colo., Oct. 17.—Judge Jefferson McAnelly, for many years one of the most influential Democrats in northern Colorado, has resigned as a member of the Democratic state central committee and joined the Populists.

He says the Democratic party has broken its promise to restore silver to its rightful place in the coinage of the country and he can no longer follow the leadership of Cleveland.

Hippolyte Whipped His Minister.

Kingston, Jamaica, Oct. 17.—Advises received here from Port au Prince, Hayti, say that President Hippolyte and his minister of war had a hand to hand fight in the palace a few days ago. The minister of war was badly whipped in the encounter with his dusky superior and is still confined to his bed by his injuries.

NO MORE PASSES.

Officials of Western and Southwestern Lines Take Action.

Will Issue No More Free Transportation This Year.

MAYBE NONE IN 1895.

Similar Action is Expected for All Next Year.

A Uniform Rate on Freight Cars is Adopted.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—The conference of the executive officers of the western and southwestern lines, which began here yesterday, got down to business in earnest today. President Marvin Hughtiff of the Chicago & Northwestern road, arrived in time to preside over the morning session.

When adjournment was taken for lunch it was announced that it had been agreed to adopt a uniform rate of six mills per car per mile on all freight cars loaded and empty except tank and refrigerator cars, the rates on these to be left to the discretion of individual roads because of the numerous existing contracts for rates.

It was also agreed to pay no mileage whatever upon poultry cars, either loaded or empty.

The last action before recess was most important, for it was the passage of a resolution to issue no free transportation whatever during the remainder of the year.

This afternoon it is expected similar action will be taken with regard to the entire year of 1895.

TWO TO ONE ON MORTON.

Phil Dwyer, the New York Horseman, Starts the Election Betting.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Election betting has been open at the St. James hotel last night bet $2,000 to $1,000 with a man named Britton that Morton would be governor. Mr. Dwyer announced anyone who wanted more could have it. Mr. Dwyer's bet caused a great deal of talk among those who know how close he stands to Richard Croker.

Stephen Smith, in Republican headquarters, has a pocketful of money which he wants to bet on Morton at 100 to 70, but he found no takers. A little man with a red necktie and a big diamond, pushed into Delmonico's and announced that he would like to bet $1,000 to $800 on Nathan Straus.

A group of brokers drinking at one of the tables promptly accepted the little man's offer, and then offered him $800 to $1,000. The little man said he had only $1,000 to bet for Bookmaker Isaac Thompson and disappeared.

A DAILY PAPER FLOPS.

It Goes Over to the Populists—Stockholders Shut It Up.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 17.—L. D. Wallace and H. D. Rodman, late of Chicago, and managers of the Daily Times here, tonight pulled down the Republican ticket and in a double-headed editorial announced their intention of henceforth supporting the Populist ticket.

Only a part of the issue got out before the stockholders of the concern attached the office on a chattel mortgage and enjoined Wallace and Rodman from further issuing the paper.

FLAGS FOR GERMANS.

One Hundred and Thirty-two Battle Flags Formally Dedicated to Emperor William.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—A magnificent military display was witnessed here today in connection with the formal dedication of 132 flags destined for the recently organized Fourth battalion of each regiment of infantry. The ceremony of pulling these flags to their staffs was performed by the Emperor William in the Ruhmes Halle, or Hall of Fame, of the arsenal, one of the best buildings in Berlin. The Hall of Fame occupies the north wing of the upper story and consists of three sections ornamented with historical frescoes and sculptures.

Among those present at the interesting ceremony were the empress and her four eldest sons, the prince and princesses of the Prussian royal family, the German sovereigns now in Berlin.

Each flag is fastened to its staff by thirty gold headed nails. The flags were made and embroidered with gold or silver by the ladies of the Lettverein of Berlin, thirty-two ladies having been occupied with this work for months past. The flags cost 800 marks each.

Emperor William was heartily cheered by dense crowds of people while driving to and from the arsenal.

Gov. Altgeld Pardoned Him.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Frank Kurtz, who was to have been hanged in the county jail Friday for the murder of his wife, will not be hanged, Governor Altgeld having last night commuted his sentence to imprisonment for life. The petitioners said Kurtz is a cigarette fiend and is weak minded.

HIPPOLYTE ISN'T AFRAID.

Says He Knows There is to be a Rebellion and He's Ready for It.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—From an official newspaper just received here from Hayti it would appear that the president of that disturbed country, Gen. Hippolyte, is preparing himself to meet another rebellion and is ready to deal in the most summary manner with the prime movers. Here is what the paper, the Moniteur of August 8 last has to say:

"Last Sunday his excellency, the president of the republic in the presence of some government officials and other citizens, expressed himself as follows."

Here follows the full text of the speech, of which the following extracts afford an illustration:

"Before I was elected chief of this state I had taken part in the administration of affairs of my country. Everybody had recognized in me an honest man. Today some of these parties who aided my promotion appear to attack me with being a thief. It is assuredly a glaring consequence on their part, because they knew me to be a thief, and having selected me as chief of the nation, they are thieves themselves. The public tranquility must be maintained at any cost, and to effect this there is no sacrifice I would not make. I shall for my part be a young devoted man, who, should the opportunity present itself, only need to hear from me to exterminate all those who would have the folly to attack my government. I know all that is said, all that is done, hence they fixed the 17th to attack my army. I shall for my part be likewise ready as well as other dates. And so much the worse should the attempt fail."

"The example to which I shall treat them will be terrible, because I will not remain that day at the palace—it would be impossible for me to be contrary to temperament. They may perhaps attempt my life."

"I shall not allow them to do me as they did President Carnot, because the aides-de-camp that are near me know what will be the penalty should they through neglect allow individuals to approach me without giving them orders to that effect. They may even, if they prefer shoot at me with a gun. I announce it now they have only to try."

ANN ARBOR BOYS DRUNK.

A Reform League Trying to Close the Saloons There.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 17.—The W. C. T. U. and Reform League have organized a crusade against the saloons of the city in the interest of better morals for students. For several years past night has been the time when the boisterous section of the town by the canals of drunken men, of whom it is alleged university students numbered not a few.

To stop the sale of liquor the women engaged in the crusade have adopted a novel plan. Every evening they will organize themselves into small bands and visit every saloon and hold religious services therein, singing hymns and uttering prayers. By this means it is hoped to practically drive away all trade from the beer shops and thus force their closing from loss of business.

CLEVELAND MAY WRITE.

He is Expected to Publicly Endorse the New York Ticket.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A special from Washington says: It is believed here that Cleveland will publicly endorse the regular New York state ticket, and will be made public early next week, and that in addition to commending the nominees, Mr. Cleveland will send a campaign contribution.

This was foreshadowed in these dispatches several weeks ago, and there is little doubt of it in administration circles.

It is not improbable also that a number of prominent leaders who have hitherto hesitated to accept campaign engagements will take the stump in New York state.

It is understood that Secretary Carlisle will make five speeches within the next two weeks, one in New York, one in Indiana and wind up in his own home.

SATOLLI ON THE A. P. A.

He Says It is Founded on Ignorance and Prejudice.

MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—Mgr. Satolli, who is here on a visit, speaking of the A. P. A., says:

"I do not think that these associations, which so ostracize the Catholics from every position of profit and honor, constitute a permanent or serious danger."

"Like the Know Nothing movement they are founded on ignorance and prejudices, which will be dispelled and they will pass away. They will have a beneficial effect in this way, that they make Catholics more zealous of the defense of their faith, but such movements do not indicate the necessity on our part of being prudent and moderate and avoiding the danger, everything which appeals to sectarianism may cause in a mixed country like America."

Past Bike Time to New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Seven days, thirteen hours and thirty-five minutes. That is now the bicycle record for the northern route between Chicago and New York. It was established by A. E. Smith, the letter carrier and member of the Lakeview Cycling club of Chicago, who arrived here at 7 o'clock last night. He left Chicago at 5 o'clock last Tuesday morning.

Eugene Hagan Met Night.

The Democratic state central committee has it understood that Eugene Hagan appeared before the special election board at the state house in behalf of S. B. Amidon of McPherson county, who is a member of the Democratic congressional committee of the Seventh district and who filed the objections. Chairman Richardson says he (Richardson) was present simply as a witness.

GOT TWO ROBBERS.

Two Men Arrested for the Virginia Train Robbery.

One Attempted to Run from the Officers.

HE HAD $1,553 ON HAND

Had a Memorandum of How the Money Was Divided.

A Colt's Revolver and Cartridges Found in His Pockets.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—A special from Cumberland, Md., says this morning at about 11 o'clock Officer Beck of this city noticed a man acting in a rather suspicious manner near the Baltimore & Ohio depot. He tried to board express train No. 9, westbound with two satchels. The man answered the description of the one who was implicated in the robbery of the express car at Quantico, Va., last week.

As soon as the officer attempted to make the arrest the man started to run but was soon caught by the officer. He claimed to have been stopping at one of the hotels in this city and upon being taken to each of the hotels in turn, claimed that it was a different one.

He was taken to the station house and upon being searched $1,553 was found hidden in two woolen stockings. Nine hundred and twenty-three dollars were in notes and $630 in silver. One silver watch and a gold one, a lot of pawn tickets and three silver pocketbooks.

A fine Colt's navy revolver was on his person. There were forty-four cartridges in his pocket and a memorandum book showing where the entire booty had been divided between the men. In his satchel were found old muddy shoes, a slouch hat and wearing apparel that looked like disguises. He asked to be taken to the wash room, and while there tried to hide another revolver and some money, but was caught in the act.

The man is six feet tall, weighs at least 160. He is six feet tall, with a smooth face and dresses neatly.

It was discovered by the officials that he had arrived in this city at about 11 o'clock yesterday morning and had got away with several hundred dollars in a gambling house. The police are confident they have one of the robbers. The man claimed to belong to several orders, but refused to give his name. He was committed to jail to await trial on the 25th inst. He is very sullen and refuses to talk, but before his commitment to jail told a number of conflicting stories. He says he was in at Quantico in the morning and for an hour before dinner he receives a constant stream of callers. When cautioned by friends about overwork he laughingly said, "I want to be alive on November 6," but they feel that unless he rests he will come nearer not having his wish.

There has been a marked change in his appearance since he landed, and he looks almost as fagged as he did last spring. Although the tan of mountain and sea breezes has not worn off, it does not hide the ravages work and worry have been making.

BETTING ON ELECTION.

Smith County Not Too Hard Up to Throw Lots of Money Around.

A local Populist politician said today that he has been bothered lately by Republican politicians shaking certified checks in his face, wanting to bet $1,000 and $2,000 that Major Morrill will have 10,000 plurality.

The Populist politician says he is now prepared to take their bets and showed the reporter a letter from J. D. Mollison, clerk of the district court of Smith county, who says he will take all the 10,000 plurality bets offered up to $4,000.

The local politician says he will put up $1,000 with the Smith county money and the $5,000 will be put up in any amounts that Morrill will not have a plurality of 10,000 votes.

WANTS $500,000 DAMAGES.

Ed Corrigan, the Race Horse Man, Sued by Constable Cunningham.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In a suit filed against Edward Corrigan, one of the proprietors of the Hawthorn race track, Constable Henry Cunningham asks for $500,000 damages for injuries sustained, from which he lost the use of one of his eyes.

Cunningham was attacked by Corrigan when serving a writ, and one of Corrigan's blows, plaintiff claims, felled him to the ground, and he was kicked about the head and upon the right eye. His injury affected his sight, and his disability is permanent.

HENRY GEORGE IN IOWA.

He Addresses the Students at the Iowa State University.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 17.—Henry George lectured last night before the State University students. After an introduction, in which the single tax theory was explained, Mr. George invited questions, and at once a dozen batteries were opened upon him. The professor of political economy led the questioning. This sort of entertainment lasted for over an hour. The address received applause, despite the fact that the majority of those present were opposed to the speaker's views.

A Surprise Party.

FROHMAN COMPANY ROW.

The "Girl I Left Behind Me" Troupe Has Trouble.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 17.—Frohman's "Girl I Left Behind Me" company is minus one girl, who was left behind when the rest of them departed for Nashville yesterday after playing an engagement at the Grand Opera house here.

Miss Frances Raymond is the actress who is left. She was playing the part of Lucy Hawksworth and the manager engaged Miss Jane Collins to take her place. Miss Raymond went to the opera house and when the play began she said to the manager:

"I will go on and you can't stop me!"

"You will not go on," reiterated the manager.

Then the excited actress exploded a bombshell.

"If I don't go on tonight I will expose you to the public," she cried. "I know and all of you know why I was banished. That man (pointing to Stage Manager Mart Heiser, who plays Major Burleigh) made improper proposals to me and I rejected his advances. My dismissal followed, and I accuse you (to Manager Smith) of being in the conspiracy."

Miss Raymond went on to New York to lay the trouble before Charles Frohman.

DR. PARKHURST'S HEALTH.

The Election is Proving Too Much for the Crusader.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The friends of the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst have begun to grow alarmed about the state of his health. Dr. Parkhurst has his regular pastoral work and the preparation of two sermons for Sunday. Then he has his work in aid of the Lexow committee, the direction of the agents of his society, and he delivers two and often three sermons a day. When he is in at home early in the morning and for an hour before dinner he receives a constant stream of callers. When cautioned by friends about overwork he laughingly said, "I want to be alive on November 6," but they feel that unless he rests he will come nearer not having his wish.

There has been a marked change in his appearance since he landed, and he looks almost as fagged as he did last spring. Although the tan of mountain and sea breezes has not worn off, it does not hide the ravages work and worry have been making.

BETTING ON ELECTION.
